Hour Last Night-Man Makes Escape by Ruse-Believed to Be Perpetrator of a Number of Jobs in This City Recently,

Efforts are being made by the police of the Fifth precinct to locate an unidentified white man whom they believe to be guilty of several robberies from dentists and dectors about the city. Dr. Charles Emmons, of 1100 Pennsylvania avenue southeast, returned to his office last night to find a man in the him that he was looking for work and had been sent from the Central Union

Mission. Police Are Notified,

Dr. Emmons sent the man from the house and then called up the mission authorities. They stated that they did not know the man, and that he had not been sent from there. Dr. Emmons notified the police of the Fifth precinct, and a general lookout has been sent out for

Many cases of instruments stolen from various physicians' offices have been re ported to the police, and several dentists have reported losses of crude gold fillings and other articles of value. It is thought that with the arrest of the man found in Dr. Emmons' office the mystery of many of these affairs will be cleared up. He is described as being about five feet six inches tall, forty-five years old,
